

2018 INDUCTEE MIKE VERNON

Mike Vernon is a two-time Stanley Cup champion and a Memorial Cup winner, who played 19 seasons in the National Hockey League with four teams. Mike hoisted the Stanley Cup in 1989 with the Calgary Flames, and then again in 1997 with the Detroit Red Wings. Over the course of his career, which concluded in 2002, Mike accumulated numerous honours, including: 1982 bronze medal with Team Canada at the World Junior Hockey Championships; 1983 Memorial Cup champ with Portland Winterhawks; two-time winner Western Hockey League top goaltender (1982, 1983); 1991 silver medal with Team Canada at the World Hockey Championships; and 1996 William M. Jennings Trophy recipient (fewest goals allowed).